and sent on for further trial. For the past three days the streets of the city looked more like the dull days of August than the busy season that was promised should arrive in September.

Mr. R. T. Anderson, President of the Phoenix Hotel Company, is advertising for contracts for the building of the hotel. Pro-posals will be received up to 12 o'clock M., Detober 1st.

Judge Kinkend is going to try some of the prisoners soon confined in the County fail charged with misdemensor, and make an effort to relieve the county of unnecesary expense.

The business boom, as predicted by "ye tnowing ones," has not yet struck Lexing-ion. We presume when it does strike it will be all the better, and would advise ev rybody to be prepared for the happy event.

It appears the rumor circulated that Mr. Hume, of Bourb in County, had "failed," turns out to be false. He has not "failed," to meet his engagements, so far as the public is aware, and the mortgage placed upon his property is a private business transaction, and as such should not have been used as public news.

The will of Mrs. Maslin Smith has been srobated. She leaves her residence to her ister, Mrs. Roache; $5.000 o the children of her deceased friend, Thos. M. MIDDLETOWN, O.

Mrs. May Wrenn, of Chicago, mother of sur fellow townsman, Chas. D. Wrenn, is risiting friends here.

The closing services of the Baptist Sabbath School Convention on Tuesday even-ing were very interesting. A number of addresses were delivered by eminent speak ers; among whom were Dr. Stone, of Lebanon, and Revs. Davis, Jr., and Hobart. The choir of the First Baptist Church of this place furnished some excellent music on the occasion. The annual sermon of the Association was preached at 11 a. m. Wednesday by Rev. W. A. Smith, of Hamliton, Ohio. The Wednesday afternoon ression was devoted largely to the reading of letters from the churches and missions tomorising the Association, giving in con-aiderable detail the results of the year's work. The large church in which the Association is held, is well filled at every meetng with an attentive and appreciative audience. A religious body of this character. composed of a c ascerated ministry, deliberating upon q estions vital to the general good of the race, should leave its impress for good upon our community.

SEWALL'S SMARTNESS.

How an Apparently Worthless Estate Pans Out.

seial to the Star

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 25 .- The Sentinel today publishes the following: It will be remembered that some two years ago Sewall was murdered near Madison, this State. Long before his death he represented himself to be financially worthless. In view of the usual fate of real estate dealers in this main so until near the close of the Exposicity, his story was readily believed by most of his creditors. Sewall finally filed his petition in bankruptcy, scheduling only a small amount of personal property and some heavily incumbered real estate.

After his death the wife of the decease procured herself to be appointed administratrix of the estate. The inventory she filed in the court sets forth only a small amount of property, not to exceed $500. The persistent creditors refused to abide by such inventory, and demanded further disclosures of property. M. H. Daniels, one of these creditors, filed a petition for the removal of Mrs. Harrie: M. Sewall as administratrix, which petition was granted, and David D. Long, a professional administrator naped has been found. He got into the of this city, appointed in her stead. Long wagon of a peanut vender and went home was permitted by Judge Adams to employ a detective to look up the case, and developments have been taking place.

The detective, Mr. Patton, went to Cincinnati, where Mrs. Sewail now resides, and found valuable property on Walnut Hills, which had been owned by Sewall and transferred to John Sloan, a mythical per son, and by Sloan to the wife of Sewall Valuable tracts of property bave been discovered in Clermont and Warren Counties. Ohio, all of which property was transferred through mythical persons to Sewall's wife.

The detective claims to have discovered property in Kentucky, Iowa and near Chicago. Altogether the property discovered amounts to several hundred thousands of

MISS TILLIE SOLOMON.

Supposed to be Captured in Chicago.

Last Friday evening, it will be remembered, Miss Tillie Solomon, the seventeenyear-old daughter of Mr. J. Solomon, the nawnbroker on Central avenue, near Seventh, left home very inysteriously. She left no word of where she intended going, and Mr. Solomon has received no tidings of and Mr. Solomon has received in tempera-her present whereabouts until yesterday, when it was heard that Tillie had gone to St. Louis, and from there to Jefferson City. This morning Colonel Wappenstein re-This morning Colonel Wapp ceived the following dispatch:

"Chicago, Sept. 25—10:58 A. M.—We have the girl, Tillie Solomon, What shall we do? Will parents send for her? "S. Q'DONNELL, Acting Chief Police."

This telegram pleased Mr. Solomon very much when it was shown him, but the following received about half an hour later, changed the aspect of things considerably: "CHICAGO, Sept. 25-11:42 A. M.-It is un-certain as to identity of the girl, although she answers description. She insists sne came from Aurora, Illinois, and that her parents live there. Will advise you further. "S. O'DONNELL." The Chief is under the impression that the Chicago officers have the wrong girl, as he doesn't think that she could get from Jefferson City to Chicago in so short a time.

Will Police Commissioner Weber Be

Bounced! It is now charged that the conduct of Police Commissioner Weber at the meeting of the Board last Monday surpassed in rudeness that of Hogan's, for which the latter was so speedily bounced by Governor Bishop. At the session last Monday an effort was made to elect a fifth member of the Board, but it proved unsuccessful.

Mr. Setchell presented a list of names, to the President, of men for whom he said he was willing to vote. The President de-clared the reading of the names out of order, whereupon, it is said, Weber jumped no and said that he would read them. The President objected. "I don't care whether you object or not," replied Weber; and with that, it is charged, he stamped and yelled so lond that gentlemen passing along Ninth street were attracted by the noise. It is understood that charges against Weber, of misconduct in the Board, will be hid before the Governor.
